

CEREMONIAL DRESS

This dress is worn for formal occasions, parades and for inspections. Cadets are always expected to have their uniforms in a state of perfection, their hair to standard and boots to be shone to a glass finish.

Medals are worn, swing-mount or court-mount are permitted.

Cadet Sgt and up are permitted to wear cross-belts. Note the lion disc on pickers worn at clavicle.

First Hussars black sword belt is worn carrying ceremonial 1912 pattern sabre on parade. White belts are not permitted.
